UPDATE (JNPA)

JNPA Strengthens Community Engagement in Nashik with Reforestation and Social Infrastructure Projects

Jawaharlal Nehru Port Authority (JNPA), India's largest container port, continues to extend its footprint beyond maritime operations, focusing on sustainable development and social welfare in its hinterland regions. Recently, JNPA undertook two major Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives in Nashik, focusing on environmental care and community welfare. The first initiative is a reforestation drive at Saptashruga Gad, aimed at enhancing green cover, promoting biodiversity, and combating environmental degradation in the region. This project reflects JNPA's dedication to sustainable practices that benefit both local communities and the ecosystem. In parallel, JNPA has initiated the construction of a girls' hostel for visually impaired students, providing safe, accessible, and supportive accommodation for young women pursuing education.

UPDATE (ONGC)

Fire in Uran plant – ONGC clarifies

Fire was reported in drain point of an isolated old line in ONGC's Uran plant on the afternoon of 8/09/2025. ONGC fire team stationed at Uran plant rushed to the area and the fire was controlled and put out. There was no loss to the property or life. There was no effect on the operations. A section of the media has reported potential impacts on gas supplies. ONGC clarifies that there is no disruption in Compressed Natural Gas (CNG) supply to consumers at any point during or after this incident. Gas supply from Uran plant to city distribution networks continued without interruption throughout the event. Also, we ensure that, with the level of expertise and adaptability in plant operations and in place robust 'Standard Operation Procedures' (SOP), such occurrences will never be the reason for disruption in supply of consumer gas.

Exact cause of the incident is yet to be ascertained. A high-level inquiry committee has been appointed to investigate the circumstances which led to the fire. We are awaiting the findings of the committee. ONGC, Uran is fully committed on highest standards of safety and is equipped with state of the art fire fighting equipments and highly trained fire brigade. Uran plant also reiterates its assurance on operational reliability.
